EnglishTeachers will be announcing supplemental novels at the beginning of each semester, affording the students ample time to secure the novel for class. Depending on the novel being assigned, there may be several options available for students: 1. The school may have a number of novels available for a discount off of the list price - The novel will belong to the student who may either keep it or resell it later. 2. A student may secure the novel at a local public library. 3. A student may purchase the novel at a local bookstore or via a discount internet company, such as half.com. 4. A student may download the novel to a personal device.
